

"It is unbelievable how powerful, of a networking tool, golf can be."
-Michelle Melia

Meeting our guest

We had the pleasure on meeting Michelle Melia, Monmouth University head coach of the women's golf program. Michelle has been playing golf since the age of seven and shared her expertise with the students. She also gave advice on using golf as a networking tool and shared her past experiences of her own that helped others around her in the business world.

Session Ahead
