Google Resume Workshop with Rutgers Student Veterans

Google is committed to breaking down the barriers that prevent students from becoming future leaders in computing and technology through our education and scholarship programs. Whether or not you're a student studying CS, this resume workshop will help you frame your experiences in a way that will help recruiters feel confident in your "fit" for each position to which you apply. Join us, and be sure to RSVP below!

WHEN:
17th October 2017
5:00PM — 6:30PM

WHERE:
